

“The apple is nutritious, serpents don’t talk, any devil or angel is your own creation, and this virtualizing power of your mind (that invents heaven or hell) has seduced you into mindlessly serving the spectacle it has created. This spectacle is your product and your downfall. Don’t look up, down, or sideways for any saviors. You are the only one that can save yourself by following the rules of Life rather than the rules of the System that has fooled you into believing that virtualized things substitute for action. Language, math, agriculture, paid labor, representations and representatives, art, religion and time, are all tools that should serve you, rather than YOU SERVING IT! Separate what is Life, and what is It, and use your Tools to fix the unsatisfying and destructive spectacle that is consuming you.”

UNIVERSE
DOES EXIST!

Be the first on you block to live in a parallel, but opposite universe! It's difficult, but at least it's free.

Join the growing millions who have decided to live real life rather than a spectacle of life. Feeling trapped? Is submission your best friend as determined by your obedience to the spectacle? Can't figure out why life is so miserable, why your friends feel the same way, but try hiding it by stuffing down another Twinky, People Magazine, Hubcap Cleaner, or episode of 24 Hours? Well guess what, your not supposed to! That's right Binky, you've swallowed the American Dream whole, and it's made you deader than a doornail. It's been spoon fed to you (and the rest of civilized homo sapiens) for the last 50,000 years or so.

Beginning to awake from the Dream...er illusion...er spectacle of civilization...er programming code that runs your life via your complicity? Wondering what the hell is going on? And when you start asking difficult questions, the social pressures of the system make you feel like a candidate for Prozac, Haldol or Krispy Kreme? Buck up! Time to resist the demanded mandatory compliance and live a real Life full of meaning and purpose.

The instruction set that is civilization can only produce abstract results out of sync with Life because it is an abstract system that serves it's own non-existent reality, at you, the servant's, expense. Tired of serving Mammon? Get in touch with your Living self which resided in a world free of any cost. Your pre-civilization ancestors were provided for by earth's Life systems with a long, healthy, violence-free egaliterian life. A return to that paradigm is imminent only if you act.

Only you can figure out how your Life can be lived. It's your life and can't be given over to someone else. Ideas? Approach Life with rigor and vitality, living it to the fullest. Find the default physical state of human being and you will find endless energy and strength to resist the illusion of the spectacle and it's demands for you to "obey!". Watch out for the "Agent Smith" in yourself and others - It's everywhere and tries to block progress to a non-toxic, egalitarian life free of commodity madness and endless absorption in the demands of the spectacle. Unplug NOW!
